

Mark Padmore, tenor and Paul Lewis, piano

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16

7:30 PM

Gates Hall, Newman Center for the Performing Arts
University of Denver

World-class English tenor Mark Padmore has been hailed for his “luminous diction and sensitivity to word and phrase” (International Record Review). He will be joined by internationally-renowned pianist Paul Lewis in a program featuring works by Brahms, Mahler, and the FCM premiere performance of Schumann’s best known song cycle, Dichterliebe.

Photo: Marco Borggreve

“...A dream team”

~The New York Times

Tickets $40; $10 - age 30 & under
friendsofchambermusic.com | 303.388.9839

Other January Events

Music with Friends

Robyn Julian, violin, and Nan Shannon, piano
Tuesday, January 8, 6 PM

Syntax Physic Opera, 554 S. Broadway, Denver
Free and open to the public. Seating is limited—come early to grab a seat and enjoy great happy hour food and drink specials.

Music in the Galleries

Clay Quartet

Sunday, January 13, 1 PM & 2 PM

Clyfford Still Museum, 1250 Bannock St., Denver
Free with museum admission. Seating is limited and available on a first come, first served basis.

FRIENDS OF CHAMBER MUSIC

191 University Blvd., #974
Denver, CO 80206-4613

friendsofchambermusic.com

Visit our website for a preview video of
*Mark Padmore &
Paul Lewis*